

$1001 UP

SECTION V
Big Book of Gifts

The Moby-Dick of Truffles

$10,000<sup>00</sup> A rare one-pound white truffle from the Piedmont region; gourmands can shave it on risotto for 100 of their closest friends (email truffles@chefswarehouse.com).

Tropical Lamp

$12,000<sup>00</sup> A little bit of Miami for the living room, the Palmyra lamp is made from brass, steel, and handblown glass by Brooklyn-based studio Moving Mountains (mvmngmnts.com).

Life-Size Speakers

$38,995<sup>00</sup> A special release timed to Bang & Olufsen's 90th anniversary, with 18 drivers, 18 amps, and the ability to project 8,200 watts of sound—an output greater than that of a movie theater (600 Madison Ave.).

Post-Dorm
Beanbag Chair

$1,200<sup>00</sup> This furry lounger from luxury sheepskin purveyors Parker Wool comes in four neutral shades, marking what seems like the first sophisticated beanbag chair ever to be produced (parkerwool.com).

Paul Theroux's Bag

$1,175<sup>00</sup> The esteemed travel writer totes this handmade briefcase—from San Francisco's Glaser Designs—with him from Siberia to the Deep South (glaserdesigns.com).

A Panic Room

FROM $50,000<sup>00</sup> So they'll be ready for the apocalypse: Gaffco specializes in creating in-home spaces with blast-resistant doors and chemical and gas protection (gaffco.com).

Cool Coop $8,493<sup>00</sup>

Cabin porn for the chickens—with separate levels so they can be arranged by pecking order—from designer Frederik Roije (roije.com).

A Prime-Time Emmy

$14,950<sup>00</sup> Originally presented to Dragnet star-producer-director Jack Webb for Best Mystery, Action, or Adventure Program back in 1952. Vintage Emmys, Oscars, Grammys, etc. are rare, so you gotta take what you can get (ebay.com).